Materials:

- 1 16" diamond clear latex balloon
- 5 11" "Hearts & Roses-A-Round" pearl ivory latex balloons
- 4 11" white latex balloons
- Monofilament line (50-lb. test or stronger)
- Ribbon
- Weight
- Balloon straw

Instructions:

- Make a Double Bubble using an 11" "Hearts & Roses-A-Round" inside a 16" diamond clear latex balloon. To do this, use a balloon straw to insert the 11" inside of the 16" balloon. Line both necks up and helium inflate the outer balloon until it is  $\frac{2}{3}$  full. Fully inflate the inner balloon, then add helium to the outer balloon until it's fully inflated. Tie the neck of the inner balloon around the neck of the outer balloon. Attach the Double Bubble to a weighted length of monofilament line.
- Make a four-balloon cluster using helium-inflated 11" balloons. To do this, fully air inflate two 11" pearl ivory balloons and tie their necks together to make a pair. Repeat to make a second pair of 11" diamond clear balloons. Twist the two pairs together, making sure the balloons intersect at the knots. Wrap the cluster onto the monofilament line just below the Double Bubble, making sure the balloons of the same color are across from each other.
- Repeat step two, wrapping the second cluster onto the line

Materials cost: About $6
Labor: 5-10 minutes
Suggested retail price: $25-$35

- just below the first. Rotate the second cluster 45 degrees so it's nested into the first cluster. Before securing, push its center firmly against the first cluster's center.
- Add coordinating ribbon as desired.
